

Colville Election Readied

NESPELEM — Candidates have been certified in the four districts of the Colville Indian reservation and all is in readiness for the May 7 election which will select seven members to 2-year terms on the tribal business council.

The candidates certified for election, by district are:

Omak district — George Snider and Mary Nicholson, incumbents; Steve Cleveland, Barbara (Dotsie) Marchand, George Timentwa and Leonard (Lezard) Charley.

Keller district — Oliver R. Pooler, incumbent.

Nespelem district — Harvey Moses and Lucy F. Covington, incumbents; William Picard, Kenneth (Pat) Bray, Mary Sumerlin and Elmer McGinnis.

Inchelium district — Frederick (Pat) Nugent and Roy B. Seyler, incumbents; Nellie Rima and Leona Seastrom.

Again this year, as in the past, the Colville Liquidation Promoters are sponsoring a full slate of candidates including five incumbents.

CLP-backed candidates include incumbents Snider, Nicholson, Pooler, Nugent and Seyler and Pat Bray and Mary E. Sumerlin.